

Captain Glen Orr

Glen has lived in the Gila Valley all his life. He graduated from Thatcher High School and attended Eastern Arizona College where he obtained an AA degree in Administration of Justice in 1994. He has since gone back to school and obtained a Bachelors from Bellevue University in Criminal Justice Administration. In January 2011, Glen completed a Masters of Public Administration degree from Bellevue University. In 2016, he attended and graduated from the FBI National Academy.

Glen has served the Gila Valley for 26 years. He started his career with the Graham County Sheriff's Department where he worked as a Patrol Deputy, Canine handler, Investigator, and Sergeant. After thirteen years, Glen left the Sheriff's Department and became the Chief Investigator for the Graham County Attorney's Office. Glen worked in this position for three years before leaving to be a Patrol Officer and Canine handler for the Safford Police Department. Glen was soon promoted to Investigations for five years at which time the Safford Police Department promoted him to Investigations Sergeant. Glen has spent 16 years as a Criminal Investigator and has investigated all types of crimes from petty thefts to narcotics, and homicides. He was promoted to Captain at the Safford Police Department in October 2016.
